Mutual of America Life Insurance Recognizes Child Abuse Division Chief Felicia Wasson for Her Commitment to the Dallas Children's Advocacy Center

(DALLAS – March 6, 2008) – On February 27, 2008, Mutual of America Life Insurance Company recognized Felicia Wasson, Chief of the Child Abuse Division at the Dallas County District Attorney's Office, at a community luncheon for her efforts and commitment to the Dallas Children's Advocacy Center (DCAC). Ms. Wasson, who was one of five honorees presented with a commemorative coin, was recognized by Mutual of America for going above and beyond in her contributions to the partnership between DCAC and the New York-based life insurance company.

"The District Attorney's Office is fortunate to have such a talented and dedicated prosecutor as Felicia Wasson heading our Child Abuse Division," said Craig Watkins, Dallas County District Attorney. "Ms. Wasson's passion for seeking justice and ensuring the safety of our children is evident in everything she does both inside and outside of the courtroom. We look forward to her continued leadership in our office as well as continued partnerships with DCAC and other agencies committed to protecting our children."

In her role as Chief of the Child Abuse Division, Ms. Wasson supervises 14 attorneys, 12 investigators and four support staff. A native of Kansas City, Missouri, Ms. Wasson has been with the Dallas County District Attorney's Office for eight years. She specializes in prosecuting cases involving the physical and sexual abuse of children, including child deaths, and has been practicing law for 11 years.

Ms. Wasson is a graduate of the University of Houston Law Center where she earned a Juris Doctorate (J.D.) degree and the University of Kansas in Lawrence, Kansas, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in East Asian Languages and Cultures and Political Science.

Her professional and civic memberships include the State Bar of Texas, United States District Court, Northern District of Texas, Texas District and County Attorneys Association and the National District Attorneys Association.

The Dallas County District Attorney's (DA) Office, located at the Frank Crowley Courts Building in Dallas, Texas, is led by District Attorney Craig Watkins, who took office on January 1, 2007. The DA's Office represents the State of Texas in the prosecution of all Dallas County criminal cases. For more information about the Dallas County District Attorney's Office, please visit www.dallasda.com.

Founded in 1991, the Dallas Children's Advocacy Center works to improve the lives of children in Dallas County and to provide national leadership on child abuse issues. They do this through a team approach of agencies that coordinate the investigation, intervention, and treatment of child sexual and physical abuse. As the first stop for child victims of sexual and physical abuse, the Dallas Children's Advocacy Center provides a safe, child-friendly environment where treatment is individualized to meet each child's emotional, psychological and developmental needs. For more information, please visit www.dcac.org.

Mutual of America was founded in 1945 to provide retirement products and insurance coverage to employees of nonprofit organizations. Today, Mutual of America continues to offer these and other financial products and services to this important segment of society, as well as to corporate employers and their employees.
